CONTENTS

VOLUME 2

List of plates ii

PLATES
LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS

The photographs from the collection of the Brandon-Jones & Thorne Partnership are from Philip Webb's records. Unless otherwise credited, photographs are by the author.

Plate

2. No. 7 Great Ormond Street, London. Webb's first office.

3. Table by Philip Webb. At Kelmscott Manor. Society of Antiquaries.

5. A Morris and Company sideboard designed by Philip Webb. Fischer Fine Art Ltd.

12. Gray's Inn Gardens, London, with No. 1 Raymond Buildings, in which Webb had his chambers, on the right.

22. Red House. Dining-room fireplace.

25. Sandroyd, Cobham, Surrey (1860). Plans (showing the offices as extended in 1864).

26. Sandroyd. From the south east. Surrey County Council County Planning Department.

27. Sandroyd. West front after enlargement in 1870. Surrey County Council County Planning Department.

29. Sandroyd. Landing arcade after the 1870 enlargement. Surrey County Council County Planning Department.

30. No. 1 Holland Park Road, Kensington, London (1864). Plans (with the 1876 additions).

31. No. 1 Holland Park Road. Sketch, from the west, by Maurice B. Adams, from The Building News, 29 October 1880.

32. No. 1 Holland Park Road. Webb's plan of the 1892-93 enlargement. British Architectural Library.

34. No. 1 Palace Green. From the north east. Photograph: Philip Gotlob.

40. West House. From the north west. Courtesy the Brandon-Jones & Thorne Partnership.

41. West House. West front. Courtesy the Brandon-Jones & Thorne Partnership.

42. West House. The studio. Courtesy the Brandon-Jones & Thorne Partnership.

43. The Briary, Freshwater, Isle of Wight (1872, destroyed by fire). Plan.

44. The Briary. From the south east. A sketch by Sheila Kirk based on a small drawing by Malcolm Fraser in The Century Magazine, 1897, and a photograph in the National Portrait Gallery.

52. Arisaig House. The bothy and covered working-area.

55. Borrodale Farm. The steading.

64. Joldwynds. Under construction, from the south west. Courtesy the Brandon-Jones & Thorne Partnership.

65. Joldwynds. From the south east, showing the library of 1891-92. Courtesy Mrs Margaret Mackinder.

68. Joldwynds. Orchid houses and stables from the south east. Courtesy the Brandon-Jones & Thorne Partnership.

69. Joldwynds. Stables from the south west.

70. Joldwynds. Stables from the north east.

74. Rounton Grange. Entrance (west) front. Courtesy Mr Robin Cook.

77. Rounton Grange. Conservatory or palm house. Courtesy the Brandon-Jones & Thorne Partnership.

82. Smeaton Manor, Great Smeaton, North Yorkshire (1876). Plans.

91. Smeaton Manor. Stable clock-tower (1877).

98. Clouds. Detail of west front.

100. Clouds. Hall. Courtesy the Brandon-Jones & Thorne Partnership.

106. Willinghurst. Entrance (north) front. Courtesy Mr Hindley Jones.

108. Willinghurst. West Front.

110. Willinghurst. Detail of dining-room fireplace.

111. Willinghurst. East Lodge (1897).

114. Standen. Entrance archway (from the court).

115. Standen. Entrance (north) front.

117. Standen. South front.

118. Standen. Conservatory.

119. Standen. Main staircase.

120. Standen. Dining-room alcove with Webb fittings.

121. Standen. Dining-room fireplace.

123. Standen. Hall.

125. Standen Cottages (1895-96).

128. Hurlands. From the north west. Courtesy the Brandon-Jones & Thorne Partnership.

130. Hurlands. South front.

139. Farm workers' terrace, East Rounton (c. 1874-76). Plan and elevation (from Webb's drawing, North Yorkshire County Council Record Office).

140. Farm workers' terrace. South front.

141. Farm workers' terrace. Detail of south front.

144. No. 19 Park Hill. Street (east) front.

145. No. 19 Park Hill. Entrance.

147. Upwood Gorse. Entrance (north west) front after the 1876 enlargement. Courtesy the Brandon-Jones & Thorne Partnership.

149. Upwood Gorse. South east front.

151. Red Barns, Coatham, Redcar, Cleveland (1868). Plans (showing the 1881 enlargement).

152. Red Barns. From the north east.

159. Oast House. From the south east (with 20th-century balcony).

162. Oast House. Stables, east front.

163. No. 2 Redington Road, Hampstead. Plans (from drawings by John Brandon-Jones).

164. No. 2 Redington Road. Detail of south front.

165. No. 2 Redington Road. Detail of south front.

166. Four Gables, Brampton, Cumbria (1876). Plans (from drawings by John Brandon-Jones).

167. Four Gables. From the south.

168. Four Gables. Entrance porch, west front.

169. Four Gables. Bay window, east front.

171. The Vicar's House, Brampton, Cumbria (1877). Plans.

172. The Vicar's House. South front.

175. The Vicar's House. Bay-window, west front.

177. New Place. South front.

179. New Place. From the south east. Courtesy the Brandon-Jones & Thorne Partnership.

180. New Place. From the north east. Courtesy the Brandon-Jones & Thorne Partnership.

181. New Place. From the west. Photograph: John Dettmar.

184. Hill House. From the south east after renovation. Cleveland County Council Planning Department.
191. Coneyhurst. From the north west.
194. Coneyhurst. Stables (after conversion to a house).
196. Goldenfields. From the west (the left-hand block is not by Webb). Photograph in a sales brochure, 1933. Hampshire County Council Record Office.
198. Goldenfields. South west front (the right-hand block is not by Webb).
200. Morris Cottages, Kelmscott, Oxfordshire. (1899-1900). From the north east.
204. Washington Hall. Detail, 1867 extension.
205. Washington Hall. Upper part of tower (c. 1867).

211. Nether Hall. North entrance porch.

213. Nether Hall. Detail of sideboard.

214. Nether Hall. Dining-room fireplace.

217. No. 1 Holland Park. Dining-room with fireplace and sideboard by Webb (1879) and decoration by Walter Crane. From The Art Journal, 1898.

222. Great Tangley Manor, near Guildford, Surrey. The 1582 front with Webb's entrance hall extension (1885) on the left and his library addition (1893) on the right. From Country Life, 1898.

230. Forthampton Court. Webb's entrance and hall window.

231. Forthampton Court. Webb's laundry block from the south west.

232. Forthampton Court. Detail of the dining-room fireplace.

234. Forthampton Court. Landing of main staircase.

244. Warrens House. West front showing the two villas (John Nash's on the right (1804)).

245. Warrens House. Scullery wing with first floor and cupola by Webb.

2. No. 7 Great Ormond Street, London. Webb's first office.

3. Table by Philip Webb. At Kelmscott Manor. Society of Antiquaries.
5. A Morris and Company sideboard designed by Philip Webb. Fischer Fine Art Ltd.

12. Gray's Inn Gardens, London, with No. 1 Raymond Buildings, in which Webb had his chambers, on the right.

22. Red House. Dining-room fireplace.

25. Sandroyd, Cobham, Surrey (1860). Plans (showing the offices as extended in 1864).
26. Sandroyd. From the south east. Surrey County Council County Planning Department.

27. Sandroyd. West front after enlargement in 1870. Surrey County Council County Planning Department.

29. Sandroyd. Landing arcade after the 1870 enlargement. Surrey County Council County Planning Department.
30. No. 1 Holland Park Road, Kensington, London (1864). Plans (with the 1876 additions).
31. No. 1 Holland Park Road. Sketch, from the west, by Maurice B. Adams, from The Building News, 29 October 1880.

32. No. 1 Holland Park Road. Webb's plan of the 1892-93 enlargement. British Architectural Library.
34. No. 1 Palace Green. From the north east. Photograph: Philip Gotlob.

40. West House. From the north west. Courtesy the Brandon-Jones & Thorne Partnership.
41. West House. West front. Courtesy the Brandon-Jones & Thorne Partnership.

42. West House. The studio. Courtesy the Brandon-Jones & Thorne Partnership.
43. The Briary, Freshwater, Isle of Wight (1872, destroyed by fire). Plan.
44. The Briary. From the south east. A sketch by Sheila Kirk based on a small drawing by Malcolm Fraser in The Century Magazine, 1897, and a photograph in the National Portrait Gallery.

52. Arisaig House. The bothy and covered working-area.

55. Borrodale Farm. The steading.

55. Borrodale Farm. The steading.

Church Hill House, Webb's drawing for the stables, 1869. Courtesy the Trustees of the Victoria and Albert Museum.
64. Joldwynds. Under construction, from the south west. Courtesy the Brandon-Jones & Thorne Partnership.

65. Joldwynds. From the south east, showing the library of 1891-92. Courtesy Mrs Margaret Mackinder.

68. Joldwynds. Orchid houses and stables from the south east. Courtesy the Brandon-Jones & Thorne Partnership.
69. Joldwynds. Stables from the south west.

70. Joldwynds. Stables from the north east.

74. Rounton Grange. Entrance (west) front. Courtesy Mr Robin Cook.

77. Rounton Grange. Conservatory or palm house. Courtesy the Brandon-Jones & Thorne Partnership.

82. Smeaton Manor, Great Smeaton, North Yorkshire (1876). Plans.

91. Smeaton Manor. Stable clock-tower (1877).

98. Clouds. Detail of west front.

100. Clouds. Hall. Courtesy the Brandon-Jones & Thorne Partnership.

106. Willinghurst. Entrance (north) front. Courtesy Mr Hindley Jones.

108. Willinghurst. West Front.

110. Willinghurst. Detail of dining-room fireplace.
111. Willinghurst. East Lodge (1897).

114. Standen. Entrance archway (from the court).

115. Standen. Entrance (north) front.
114. Standen. Entrance archway (from the court).

115. Standen. Entrance (north) front.

117. Standen. South front.
118. Standen. Conservatory.

119. Standen. Main staircase.
120. Standen. Dining-room alcove with Webb fittings.

121. Standen. Dining-room fireplace.

123. Standen. Hall.

125. Standen Cottages (1895-96).

128. Hurlands. From the north west. Courtesy the Brandon-Jones & Thorne Partnership.

130. Hurlands. South front.

139. Farm workers' terrace, East Rounton (c. 1874-76). Plan and elevation (from Webb's drawing, North Yorkshire County Council Record Office).
140. Farm workers' terrace. South front.

141. Farm workers' terrace. Detail of south front.
144. No. 19 Park Hill. Street (east) front.

145. No. 19 Park Hill. Entrance.
147. Upwood Gorse. Entrance (north west) front after the 1876 enlargement. Courtesy the Brandon-Jones & Thorne Partnership.

149. Upwood Gorse. South east front.

151. Red Barns, Coatham, Redcar, Cleveland (1868). Plans (showing the 1881 enlargement).
152. Red Barns. From the north east.

152. Red Barns. From the north east.

159. Oast House. From the south east (with 20th-century balcony).

162. Oast House. Stables, east front.
164. No. 2 Redington Road. Detail of south front.

165. No. 2 Redington Road. Detail of south front.
166. Four Gables, Brampton, Cumbria (1876). Plans (from drawings by John Brandon-Jones).
167. Four Gables. From the south.

168. Four Gables. Entrance porch, west front.
169. Four Gables. Bay window, east front.

171. The Vicar's House, Brampton, Cumbria (1877). Plans.
172. The Vicar's House. South front.

175. The Vicar's House. Bay-window, west front.
177. New Place. South front.

179. New Place. From the south east. Courtesy the Brandon-Jones & Thorne Partnership.

180. New Place. From the north east. Courtesy the Brandon-Jones & Thorne Partnership.
181. New Place. From the west. Photograph: John Dettmar.

184. Hill House. From the south east after renovation.
Cleveland County Council Planning Department.

FIRST FLOOR

GROUND FLOOR

191. Coneyhurst. From the north west.

194. Coneyhurst. Stables (after conversion to a house).
196. Goldenfields. From the west (the left-hand block is not by Webb). Photograph in a sales brochure, 1933. Hampshire County Council Record Office.

198. Goldenfields. South west front (the right-hand block is not by Webb).

200. Morris Cottages, Kelmscott, Oxfordshire (1899-1900). From the north east.

204. Washington Hall. Detail, 1867 extension.

205. Washington Hall. Upper part of tower (c. 1867).

211. Nether Hall. North entrance porch.

213. Nether Hall. Detail of sideboard.
214. Nether Hall. Dining-room fireplace.

217. No. 1 Holland Park. Dining-room with fireplace and sideboard by Webb (1879) and decoration by Walter Crane. From The Art Journal, 1898.

220. No. 1 Holland Park. Smoking-room (demolished).
222. Great Tangley Manor, near Guildford, Surrey. The 1582 front with Webb's entrance hall extension (1885) on the left and his library addition (1893) on the right. From Country Life, 1898.

WEST ELEVATION

GROUND FLOOR
liv
wash
sto

FIRST FLOOR

230. Forthampton Court. Webb's entrance and hall window.

231. Forthampton Court. Webb's laundry block from the south west.
232. Forthampton Court. Detail of the dining-room fireplace.

234. Forthampton Court. Landing of main staircase.

244. Warrens House. West front showing the two villas (John Nash's on the right (1804)).

245. Warrens House. Scullery wing with first floor and cupola by Webb.

